

Platinum Plus. Survivor's income cover – total and permanent disability cover – accelerated.

Your cover in detail.

1. Introduction.

This Survivor's income cover – total and permanent disability cover – accelerated provides you with an advanced payment of the Survivor's income cover if the insured person suffers for the first time, after the policy starts, from a total and permanent disability.

The policy schedule will show which insured person this Survivor's income cover – total and permanent disability cover – accelerated applies to.

2. Built-in benefits.

2.1 Total and permanent disability.

2.1.1 Total and permanent disability before age 65.

Total and permanent disability means that we are satisfied that one of the following events occurs before the insured person's 65th birthday:

a. Own occupation.

If own occupation is shown in the policy schedule for an insured person, then they have been absent from employment through sickness or injury for an uninterrupted period of three months, and in our reasonable opinion after considering all the medical evidence and other relevant evidence has become so disabled that they will unlikely ever again to be able to work in any capacity in their own occupation,

Or

b. Any occupation.

If any occupation is shown in the policy schedule for an insured person, then they have been absent from employment through sickness or injury for an uninterrupted period of three months and in our reasonable opinion after considering all the medical evidence and other relevant evidence, has become so disabled that they will unlikely ever again to be able to perform their own occupation or any occupation,

Or

c. Home duties.

If the insured person wasn't gainfully employed immediately before the event causing disability due to undertaking full-time home duties, regardless of whether own occupation or any occupation is shown in the policy schedule, total and permanent disability shall mean that they, for an uninterrupted period of at least three months:

- have been under medical supervision with the complete inability to perform all normal home duties, and
- have been unable to leave the home without assistance, and
- in our reasonable opinion based on medical and other relevant evidence, are unlikely to ever again be able to perform all normal home duties,

Or

d. has suffered the total and permanent loss of the:

- sight of both eyes, or
- use of two limbs, or
- sight of one eye, and the loss of the use of either a whole hand, or a whole foot.

Loss of the sight in an eye must be confirmed by an ophthalmologist and measured by one of the following:

- visual acuity of less than 6/60 in the affected eye after correction, or
- a field of vision constricted to 20 degrees of arc or less, or
- a combination of visual defects resulting in the same degree of visual impairment as that occurring in either of the above,

Or

e. is totally and permanently unable to perform at least two activities of daily living as a result of sickness or injury without the assistance of an adult,

Or

- f. has suffered an injury or illness of the brain resulting in permanent and irreversible loss of cognitive function that requires the insured person to be under continuous full time care for the insured person's safety to prevent such situations including but not limited to wandering away from their usual place of residence, physical aggression, neglect of self-care, misjudging or causing situations that are dangerous for themselves or others.

The loss needs to be measured by clinical evidence and standardised tests which reliably measure the impairment in the following areas:

- Short or long term memory
- Orientation as to person (such as personal identity), place (such as location), and time (such as day, date and year)
- Deductive or abstract reasoning

2.1.2 Total and permanent disability from age 65 to age 70.

If we are satisfied that after the insured person's 65th birthday they were continuing to perform their usual occupational duties without limitation or restriction due to sickness or injury for at least 25 hours per week, then we will assess any claim for total and permanent disability made before their 70th birthday under the definition that applied before the insured person's 65th birthday.

If the insured person was performing their occupational duties with limitations or restrictions due to sickness or injury, we will assess the claim under the definition applying under section 2.1.4.

2.1.3 Home duties from age 65.

If the insured person wasn't gainfully employed immediately before the event causing disability due to undertaking full-time home duties and the event causing the total and permanent disability happens after the insured person's 65th birthday, we will assess the claim under the definition applying under section 2.1.4.

2.1.4 Total and permanent disability from age 70.

Where the event causing the total and permanent disability happens after the insured person's 70th birthday, or where sections 2.1.2 or 2.1.3 apply, the following definition applies:

Total and permanent disability means that we are satisfied that the insured person:

- a. has suffered the total and permanent loss of the:
- sight of both eyes, or
  - use of two limbs, or
  - sight of one eye, and the loss of the use of either a whole hand, or a whole foot.

Loss of the sight in an eye must be confirmed by a specialist medical practitioner and measured by one of the following:

- visual acuity of less than 6/60 in the affected eye after correction, or
- a field of vision constricted to 20 degrees of arc or less, or
- a combination of visual defects resulting in the same degree of visual impairment as that occurring in either of the above,

Or

- b. is totally and permanently unable to perform at least two activities of daily living as a result of sickness or injury without the assistance of an adult,

Or

- c. has suffered an injury or illness of the brain resulting in permanent and irreversible loss of cognitive function that requires the insured person to be under continuous full time care for the insured person's safety to prevent such situations including but not limited to wandering away from their usual place of residence, physical aggression, neglect of self-care, misjudging or causing situations that are dangerous for themselves or others.

The loss needs to be measured by clinical evidence and standardised tests which reliably measure the impairment in the following areas:

- Short or long term memory
- Orientation as to person (such as personal identity), place (such as location), and time (such as day, date and year)
- Deductive or abstract reasoning

2.1.5 Total and permanent disability partial benefit.

We will pay a partial benefit if the insured person suffers the total and permanent loss of use of one hand, one foot or the sight in one eye.

The loss of the sight must be confirmed by an appropriate specialist medical practitioner and measured by one of the following:

- visual acuity of less than 6/60 in the affected eye after correction, or
- a field of vision constricted to 20 degrees of arc or less, or
- a combination of visual defects resulting in the same degree of visual impairment as that occurring in either of the above.

2.1.6 How much do we pay?

When the insured person suffers a total and permanent disability, we will pay you either:

- the monthly benefit in arrears for the term, or
- if the total and permanent disability is a partial benefit, 25% of the present-day value of the monthly benefit up to a maximum of $75,000.

Payment of the Survivor's income cover – total and permanent disability cover – accelerated is an advanced payment of the Survivor's income cover this Survivor's income cover – total and permanent disability cover – accelerated is attached to. We will reduce the monthly benefit on your Survivor's income cover, Survivor's income cover – total and permanent disability cover – accelerated, and any Survivor's income cover – trauma cover – accelerated by any amount payable under this cover. The premiums will change accordingly.

The monthly benefit payments for an insured person will stop at the end of the term.

Where the event giving rise to the payment of the monthly benefit was already covered at the start date by a policy issued by us or another insurer (existing policy), then we will reduce the monthly benefit and our payment so that when added to any amount paid or payable under the existing policy, the total for that insured person does not exceed the present-day value of the monthly benefit equivalent of $5,000,000.

2.1.7 Total and permanent disability early payment.

If the cause of the insured person's total and permanent disability is due to one of the below conditions, we will waive the requirement for the insured person to be absent from employment or unable to undertake full-time home duties for an uninterrupted period of three months. The conditions are:

- Alzheimer's disease
- Major head trauma
- Parkinson's disease
- Cardiomyopathy
- Motor neurone disease
- Severe rheumatoid arthritis
- Chronic lung disease
- Multiple sclerosis
- Systemic sclerosis
- Dementia
- Muscular dystrophy

We will advise you of the requirements we need to assess your claim.

We won't pay any claim until we receive all the requirements we need to assess the claim and confirm that the insured person meets the definition of total and permanent disability.

3.2 Obligations.

You and the insured person (if possible) must throughout the life of the claim:

- Complete our claim form in full and send it to us as soon as reasonably possible.
- Supply us with all relevant medical evidence we reasonably require in connection with the claim.
- Authorise the disclosure to us of their or your personal information in connection with the claim held by any other party.
- Authorise the disclosure of their or your personal information held by us to another party to evaluate the claim.
- Provide us with any other relevant information we reasonably require. This may include but isn't limited to financial, medical and occupational evidence.

The insured person where appropriate must:

- Provide a signed report from an appropriate specialist medical practitioner confirming the occurrence of the total and permanent disability.
- Undergo one or more medical examinations if we reasonably request them at our expense. This may include blood tests and medical testing.
- We may also request other additional claim proofs necessary to complete our assessment of the claim including an independent opinion from an appropriate medical practitioner or specialist medical practitioner approved by us.

You must pay any expenses incurred in proving your claim.

4. Exclusion.

You can't claim under this cover for any sickness or injury in connection with a self-inflicted act or injury.

5. When this cover ends.

This Survivor's income cover – total and permanent disability cover – accelerated ends for an insured person on the earliest of the date:

- a. you cancel their Survivor's income cover, or
- b. you cancel their Survivor's income cover – total and permanent disability cover – accelerated, or
- c. when we have paid the full monthly benefit for the full term, or
- d. this Policy ends for any reason, or
- e. they die.

6. General definitions.

The definitions shown below apply to all derivatives of the words defined.

Any occupation.

An occupation for which the insured person is suited to by education, training or experience, which would remunerate at a rate greater than 25% of their earnings over the last 12-month period of employment.

Gainfully employed.

Working in an occupation or job as an employee for reward, salary, commission or any other income. For an insured person who's self-employed, working in any business or professional practice which could produce income for that business or professional practice.

Home duties.

The duties normally associated with a person who's engaged in full time unpaid home duties within the family home, and isn't employed in any occupation or working outside the insured person's home for salary, reward or profit and includes:

- a. Cleaning the family home, such as using a vacuum cleaner, sweeping with a broom, using a mop and cleaning dishes (automatic or manual).
- b. Cooking the family meals, such as preparing fresh and frozen food and using an oven, stove or microwave oven.
- c. Doing the family's laundry, such as loading and unloading a washing machine, hanging out clothes or using a dryer, folding clothes and ironing.
- d. Shopping, such as attending shops or using the phone or internet to purchase food for the family.

- e. Taking care of the insured person's dependent children (where applicable) such as supervising, lifting, transporting, feeding and bathing.

We won't consider an insured person who is actively seeking employment or is performing less than full time unpaid home duties to be performing home duties.

Own occupation.

The field of work in which the insured person has trained in, specialises in and was engaged in immediately before becoming totally and permanently disabled.

Partial benefit.

A part payment of the monthly benefit.

Present-day value.

The current value of the sum of the monthly benefit payments remaining during the term when each payment is discounted by a rate that is a function of the annual interest rate as reasonably determined by us. Because the buying power of a dollar decreases over time the amount of the present-day value will always be less than the sum of the remaining monthly benefit payments.

Term.

The maximum period shown on the policy schedule for an insured person that we pay you the monthly benefit.

Total and permanent disability.

A sickness or injury resulting in the insured person meeting the definition as outlined in section 2.1.
