01 What is Survivor's income cover?

What's the benefit?

Provides a financial safety net and ongoing monthly income to those you leave behind, after you've died.

What does it do?

Survivor's income cover helps reduce the financial burden by providing a regular monthly payment to your loved ones for a period-of-time chosen by you.

When does it pay?

Either when you die or have been diagnosed as terminally ill and given less than 12-months to live.

Make sure it's right for you.

Survivor's income cover can help if you've got any of the following:

Family that rely on your income.

Mortgage repayments to make.

Children to put through school or university.

Monthly utility and household bills.

02 Key facts you should know.

Entry age 16-75.

You are insured for life – there is no expiry age.

Monthly payment can range from $500 to $50,000 depending on what you choose.

You'll be asked to supply personal details about you; like health and finance.

Choose how you want to pay; a set price for a fixed period-of-time or payments that increase every year.

You can choose a set benefit amount for a set period of time.

03 Here's a snapshot of what's included.

- ✓ Receiving a terminal diagnosis – If you are diagnosed as terminally ill and given less than 12-months to live, the monthly payment will begin.
- ✓ Increase your cover without additional medical information – There are lots of milestones in life that can prompt you to increase your cover. You're getting married, having a child, taking out a mortgage or increasing it. As life changes, so can your cover. At times like these, you might be able to increase your cover without providing any additional medical information.
- ✓ Flexibility to put your cover on hold – If you're finding it hard to meet your premium payments because you've been made redundant, declared bankrupt or have decided to undertake study or overseas travel you have the option to put up to $1,500 of your cover and premium on hold. No claims will be payable while your cover is on hold.

04 Consider adding options to suit your personal needs.

Here are some of the options you can add-on to this Survivor's income cover that may require payment of an additional premium.

Trauma cover.

If you were to suffer one of the specified conditions on page-4, the monthly payment would begin, which is an early payment of the survivor's income benefit. It's worth noting that with some conditions cover starts 3-months after you've applied for your policy.

Total and permanent disability cover.

If you are totally and permanently disabled and unable to work again, the monthly cover would begin, which is an early payment of the survivor's income benefit.

Increase your claim with inflation.

To grow the amount of your Survivor's income cover whilst you're on claim, you can have your monthly benefit payments increase during a claim period by a preset amount, up to 5% each year.
